

Railroad Commission.

A great deal of interest is just now manifest in the bill before the legislature to create a railroad commission for the State of Utah. Various commercial and labor organizations have declared against the measure for what seems to us legitimate reasons. The good that such a commission might do must be compared with the evils necessarily resultant and if the evils more than cancel the good there can be no reason for passing the bill.

Utah is situated a long way from the coast. Her commerce is dependent upon railroad development, the more of which are built, the better for her industrial welfare. Even now the state is suffering the loss of thousands of dollars per month on account of lack in railroads and their equipment. Every new road built in the state means the development of new resources and a stimulus to industries already established.

A commission would discourage capital coming to Utah for railroad investment, for other fields would become more attractive. Lower and more uniform rates would perhaps be secured, but at the loss of something more vital. Surely competition and legislation can so far control these matters that the commission would be unnecessary at the present time when Utah needs to encourage railroad building rather discourage it. It is doubtful too, if the expense of the railroad commission could be much more than saved to the state by their labors and it might even result in a burden to the taxpayers of the state.

It must be born in mind, further, that congress has recently passed laws governing interstate traffic which will control most of the railroad traffic with which the people of this state have to deal. Why not let good enough alone and let the national laws have a chance to do their work before attempting something fraught with such danger to our industrial and commercial growth.

Changed Climate.

The oldest settlers of Utah can not remember a winter just like the present one. The mild weather combined with the heavy precipitation defy all previous records, and suggest the possibility of new, or changed climatic condition surrounding at least a part of the intermountain region. Various theories are being put forth to account for the change. The new Salton Sea produced by the uncontrolled waters of the Colorado river is pointed to as the cause by a number of persons who have given years of study to the distribution of moisture. It is well known that Utah is in the path of the prevailing westerlies and the air which passes over this new sea would very likely precipitate its moisture here.

The theory is worthy very careful consideration, for if true the sea should become a permanent one, thus turning the arid climate of a large area into a humid one.

Other persons explain the change on the theory of climatic cycles, wet and dry periods following each other in regular succession.

Whatever the cause the storms are doing a vast amount of good laying up water for the farmer, insuring a heavy yield from dry land farms, and providing excellent pasturage for sheep and cattle. Should the present climatic conditions continue there is a great future for Utah.

Notice.

United States Land Office, Salt Lake City, Utah, January 7, 1907.

To Whom It May Concern: Notice is hereby given that the State of Utah has filed in this office a list of lands selected by the said State, as Indemnity School Lands, under section 6 of the Act of Congress, approved July 16, 1894. The following tracts, embraced in said list, are found to be within six miles of a mining location, claim or entry, viz:

SW 1/4 Sec. 24, T. 5 S., R. 2 W., S. 1. M., (State No. 667.)

A copy of said list, so far as it relates to said tracts, by descriptive subdivisions, has been conspicuously posted in this office for inspection by any person interested, and by the public generally.

Within the next sixty days following the date of the first publication of this notice, under departmental instructions of January 10, 1906 protests or contests against the claim of the State to any of the tracts or subdivisions hereinbefore described, on the ground that the same is more valuable for mineral than for agricultural purposes, will be received and noted for report to the General Land Office at Washington, D. C. Failure so to protest or contest, within the time specified, will be considered sufficient evidence of the non-mineral character of the tracts, and the selection thereof, being otherwise free from objection, will be recommended for approval.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Contest Notice.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Salt Lake City, December 13, 1906. A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by John H. Nooton, contestant, against homestead entry No. 14809, made Nov. 14, 1901, for NE 1/4 section 25, Township 5 S., Range 2 W., by Charles H. Hallstrom, Contestee, in which it is alleged that said contestant has abandoned said land for more than six months prior to the filing of the original affidavit of contest, Sept. 25th, 1906, and still continues to abandon the land, that he has failed to put a house on said land or to plow and cultivate said land, and that said abandonment is not caused by service in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on February 1, 1907, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Salt Lake City, Utah. The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed Dec. 13, 1906, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication in the Lehi Banner, published at Lehi, Utah.

If It's Neuralgia

and those sharp, shooting, agonizing pains drive you almost crazy, take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and get relief. They drive out the pain by their soothing effect upon the nerves. When taken as directed they are harmless, and leave no bad after-effects. That's the reason they are so popular with all who use them. Your druggist can tell you what others in your locality think of them.

"I do positively think that Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are the best medicine ever put upon the market. I find them so restful and soothing, and without any bad after-effects, I have suffered with neuralgia so that my system would just ache and quiver, and I cannot take opiates; but I can take these tablets, and they always relieve me. No one that suffers with neuralgia need fear to take them as know they will not form a habit, for if there was any opiate in them I could not take them. Just one in the morning when I feel bad, and I can do my work all day."

MRS. W. H. BURKETT, Macon, Ga.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails, he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
